corporation)
Defendant.

JEFFRY FINER states as follows:

1. I am one of the counsel to Plaintiff in the above-entitled matter and have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration.

3. Since 1999, I have been an adjunct professor of law at Gonzaga University 4 Law School, where I have taught criminal procedure, criminal trial process, white collar crime and coach the school's trial team in national competitions.
From time to time, I consult as an expert witness on attorney malpractice. I regularly present CLEs and have published non-scholarly articles in over half a dozen legal magazines. My appellate work consists largely of Ninth Circuit matters, and in 1996, I argued before the United States Supreme Court.

4. My hours are gathered from contemporaneous records reflecting the actual time spent on the matters notated. The time and activities reported are correct, necessary and reasonable.

5. Attached is a true and correct copy of an outline reflecting contemporaneous billing records maintained during this case, totaling 23.2 hours for attorney time. I billed my time on this matter at $300/hour, which is well within the prevailing market rate for lawyers with my education and experience practicing civil rights law in Federal Court for the Eastern District of Washington. Thus, my billable time on this case totals $6,960 through the date of this declaration.

6. I provided supervision to Jennifer Slattery while she worked on this matter and have reviewed her time records.

7. I believe my billable time and Jennifer Slattery's billable time on this case are reasonable, based on my personal experience and familiarity with the Spokane legal community and practice before the federal court.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated this 25 day of May, 2012, at Spokane, Washington.
